

Improving and extending lives by treating arrhythmias

CERTIFICATION EXAMINATION 2019

Candidates entering any examination with BHRS agree to be bound by the Terms and Conditions contained herein.

Candidate ID

Candidates are required to bring a means of photo identification to the exam centre, (including but not limited to, Passport, ID card or Driving Licence). If proof of identification is not provided to the Invigilator prior to the examination, BHRS reserve the right to refuse the candidate entry to sit the exam.

Code of behaviour

When attending the exam, candidates must ensure they are polite and courteous to other candidates and the Invigilator at all times.

The candidate may use a basic calculator, dividers, rulers and magnifying glass but not ECG rulers or any other devices. Mobile phones and smart watches are not permitted.

Copying part or all of the examination paper is strictly forbidden. You must return the question paper to the invigilator at the end of the examination.

Retention of information

Electronic copies of candidate information will be held for the lifetime of the examination in order to provide verification of results upon request.

Confirmation

By confirming that you have read and accept these Terms and Conditions, you confirm that you understand and agree that in the event of non-compliance with any of the above regulations, your exam result will become void and the exam fee will NOT be refunded. Furthermore, in the event of non-compliance with any of the exam regulations, you hereby agree that details relating to your identity and the reasons for your non-compliance with the relevant exam regulations can be disclosed by BHRS.