

Electrophysiology and Device Therapy 2024 – What Every Cardiologist Needs to Know. 19th & 20th April 2024, Radisson Blu Cardiff

Friday 19th April 2024

Session 1. 13.30 - 15.00 Chaired by Dr Dewi Thomas, Morriston Hospital, Swansea

13.30 – 14.00 Anti-arrhythmic drugs: What should I use and in which patients?
Dr Joe De Bono, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham

14.00 – 14.30 Optimal management of a patient with unexplained cardiac arrest. Initial triage to hospital discharge.
Dr Rachel Bastiaenen, Guys & St Thomas' Hospital, London

14.30 – 15.00 Left Bundle Area Pacing: Is this the future for conventional bradycardia pacing?
Dr Ahran Arnold, Imperial College, London

15.00 – 15.30 Coffee Break

Session 2. 15.30 – 17.00 Chaired by Dr Peter O Callaghan, UHW, Cardiff

15.30 – 15.50 Is there still a role for DCCV in the management of AF? If so, how do I optimise outcomes?
Dr Moly Das, Freeman Hospital, Newcastle

15.50 – 16.20 Atrial Fibrillation Ablation: How soon should it be considered and when is it too late?
Dr Dewi Thomas, Morriston Hospital, Swansea

16.20 – 17.00 ECG Quiz JDB vs POC.
Dr Joe De Bono, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham

17.00 – 19.00 Check-In

Pre Dinner Guest Speaker

19.00 - 19.45 The Future of AI in ECG analysis & Risk Stratification.
Dr Rhodri Davies, University College London & University Hospital of Wales, Cardiff

19.45 Conference Dinner

Electrophysiology and Device Therapy 2024 – What Every Cardiologist Needs to Know. 19th & 20th April 2024, Radisson Blu Cardiff

Saturday 20th April 2024

Session 3. 09.00 – 10.30 Chaired by Dr Dewi Thomas

09.00 – 09.30 Left Ventricular Non-Compaction. What is it and what risk is associated with the condition?
Dr Mark Anderson, Morriston Hospital, Swansea

09.30 – 10.00 Should I Implant a CRT-P or a CRT-D device?
Prof Francisco Leyva, Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Birmingham

10.00 – 10.30 Whole system approach to prevention of device infection.
Dr Peter O Callaghan, University Hospital of Wales, Cardiff

10.30 – 11.00 Coffee Break

Session 4. 11.00 – 12.30 Chaired by Dr Peter O Callaghan

11.00 – 11.30 How Should I Manage Medically Refractory VT storm/frequent ICD shocks.
Dr Matt Bates, James Cook Hospital, Middlesbrough

11.30 – 11.50 Who Needs a PPM before/After TAVI?
Dr Malcolm Finlay, St Bart's Hospital, London

11.50 -12.30 How do I risk stratify a patient with a Channelopathy?
Dr Carey Edwards, Morriston Hospital, Swansea

12.30 Pack lunch & depart